In the recent publication of a chapter that we wrote for this book (Chapter 1), the publisher Praeger/ABC-CLIO failed to provide the final copy for proofing by the authors. After receiving our printed copy we discovered that either their preflight or layout editing, which Praeger had outsourced to people in India, introduced a number of errors that the authors and editors did NOT make.

A list of the introduced errors we have noticed thus far follows:

“peyotes” was changed from “peyote’s”.
